will be held at the M. E. church Mon-

FIVE CHARRED BODIES

Found After the Burning of Two Harlem Tenements.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.
New York, Dec. 18.—Two large tenements in Harlem were burned this morning. Five charred bodies have been found on the upper floors. Four women and one little girl were carried out alive but were horribly burned and it is not believed that any of them will live.

A few hours earlier flames swept tenements on Tenth avenue and burned to death a mother and her child. The charred remains were found afterwards.

THE CENTURY NOT ENDED.

Lacks Another Whole Year Yet—Figure for Yourself.

Some days ago a contemporary remarked that there were people in the world as a result of trying to solve the problem as to whether 1899 ended the present century or whether it would be at the end of 1900.

Dr. J. T. J. Battle, of this city, has cleared the matter up. It is as easy as rolling off a log. For instance, if a man owed you a hundred dollars and paid you only $99, the debt would not be cancelled, would it? Or take the exact figures: Suppose he owed you $1,000 and offered you $1,999, you would still claim another dollar.

This is dead easy, and we do not believe the century will end until the year 1900 has passed into history.

Smallpox Not at Guilford.

Editor Telegram:

Guilford College being the name of the postoffice at this place, all people who live within a circle about the college of four miles in diameter are said to live at the college, and all events in said circle are reported as occurring at the college.

The above statement may account for any reports there may be to the effect that smallpox was or is at the college.

There is not a case within a mile of the college; nor has there been within a half mile.

There is not, nor has there been, the slightest ground for believing any student or any one else within the corporate limits of the town of Guilford College has been exposed to smallpox.

There is absolutely no sickness of any kind at the college, except such as results from vaccination.

TRAGEDY IN A COURT ROOM.

Doctor Shot Down by the Brother of His Alleged Victim.

St. Louis, Dec. 18.—A special to the Post Dispatch from Dallas, Tex., says: Theatrical Dr. S. M. Jenkins, charged with murder and abortion, came to a sudden and tragic end today, when Hugh Wheat, 28 years old, a brother of Mary Wheat, one of the doctor's alleged victims, shot and mortally wounded the defendant in a crowded court room.

Court had just convened. The state introduced as the first witness a Hugh Wheat, who walked into the court room with his hat on, came up to the railing where the defendant sat, pulled a pistol and shot Dr. Jenkins in the back, the ball passing near the spinal column, inflicting what is supposed to be a mortal wound. When Wheat fired he dropped the pistol and ran toward the door. John Halligan, brother-in-law of Jenkins, grabbed up the weapon and fired at Wheat, missing him. Wheat and Halligan were arrested, but the latter was released on bonds of $5,000.

BIG FORGERIES.

Said to Have Been Committed in Danville.

Chief of Police Scott, of this city,
last night received the following telegram from Danville: "The Danville Bee, of yesterday says great indignation is expressed in that city because of whispered proceedings in a case where a young man of the town is reported to have uttered forgery to the amount of almost ten thousand dollars, and where the parties who were the victims refused to turn over the case to the officers, but who, on the spot, waited until he could get friends of the young man to reimburse them in their losses."

This is evidently the same case.

LIUT. BRUMBY DEAD.

The Gallant Georgian Passes Away
in Washington.

Washington, Dec. 18.—Lieutenant Thomas M. Brumby, flag lieutenant to Admiral Dewey during the Manilla campaign, who has been ill with typhoid fever for several weeks, died at Gardner Hospital shortly after 6 o'clock last evening.

The death of Lieut. Brumby while not unexpected, was a great shock to Admiral Dewey. The relations of the two men for several years past have been very intimate and a strong friendship had grown up between them. Lieutenant Brumby went out to the Asiatic station with the admiral and had been there with him until they both returned to the United States several months ago. In his capacity as flag lieutenant to the admiral, Lieutenant Brumby was thrown with his chief practically all the time and acted as his personal representative in many matters of detail delegated to him by the commanding officer. He was regarded by Admiral Dewey as a bright, energetic and capable assistant, while the devotion of the latter to the admiral was something marvelous. The burden of his thoughts during the latter days of his illness when his mind was racked with delirium seemed to be regarding his work for the admiral.

WILLIAM HENRY BRANSON.

A beautiful little book of 112 pages, handsomely bound in black, has just been issued from the presses of Joseph J. Stone, in this city. On the front cover in bright gilt letters are the words:

IN MEMORIAM.

WILLIAM HENRY BRANSON.

Our readers will remember that on March 24th, last, the hearts of all who knew him, were saddened by the announcement, "Will Branson is dead." They remember the dreadful accident, the bursting of a steam pipe, which caused his death, and how the precious remains were brought to Greensboro and tenderly laid away in Greene Hill cemetery. Yet he lives today!

He lives today in the memory of his friends. The book referred to is proof that he has left behind friends who treasure his good deeds. A short but beautiful introduction to the volume was written by President Peacock, of Greensboro Female College. We copy his closing words: "Now, let the words of those who knew him best and loved him greatest tell the simple story of his active and faithful life. The work of gathering up these fragments has not been a burden, but a labor of love."

Then follows a poem written by Mrs. E. M. Anderson, directed to the bereaved relatives and friends, full of sympathy and encouragement. A biographical sketch covers the next fourteen pages, written by President Kilgo, of Trinity College, embracing Mr. Branson's family history, his boyhood, business training under Mr. J. A. Odell, of this city, his later success in business and church affairs, his happy marriage and model home life, ending with a deserved tribute to a true man and faithful friend.

The succeeding pages contain clippings from various newspapers telling of the distressing accident, the death and funeral, editorial tributes, resolutions of respect, sympathetic telegrams and a large collection of letters to his family.

It is a work well done, and a just tribute to one who deserved all that has been or can be said of him.

COLLEGE ATHLETICS.

Public attention has more or less been attracted of late to athletics in our public institutions of learning. Baseball and football are recognized in most schools and colleges as being highly essential, in that these games develop the muscle and strengthen the body, without which the mind is dwarfed and cannot receive and retain the instruction given. It has also been noticed that the former custom of having "match games" between rival institutions has been, in some cases, broken off. The reasons for this have not been apparent to all.

We are led to notice this by an article in the current number of the Guilford Collegian, from the pen of Mr. J. W. Lewis, of this city, on the subject, "Professionalism in College Athletics." The article is well written, and claims that the degeneracy in college athletics is due to the tendency on the part of colleges and schools to give tuition, board, money, or in other ways, induce professional players to attend the school, in order to secure their services in the games to be played. Mr. Lewis argues that such things discourage, rather than encourage athletic sports among the amateurs of a college and often the best material is undeveloped. He says that besides this there is "a class of individuals who have no connection at all with the institution who are glad of an opportunity to engage in the college sport for the love of it and readily accept the proposition to 'play just this game.'"

He continues: "It is almost impossible to find a college team, especially in football and baseball, which is composed strictly of college students, and to have a clean, straight game, because of the tight grip this class of individuals has on the situation."

Again he says: "Now this element that is working in this little bit of our college is a big and a bad effect. It is growing, and judging from the results already in evidence, will soon put an end to intercollegiate contests, for they will eventually fall into disrepute; and when that occurs the college authorities will step in and put a stop to intercollegiate games."

The sum total of Mr. Lewis's argument is that only bona fide, legitimate students should be allowed to play on the college teams. Without being required to admit or deny the charge that "professionals" are hired, or otherwise induced, which amounts to the same thing, we are of the opinion that he is right. If there is any good in college athletics, the boys who pay their money to go to school should get the practice and athletic training. Every "professional" employed makes one place less for the amateur. An association of colleges is suggested to establish certain rules by which intercollegiate games shall be governed. It is not a bad idea. Do something to stop this wrangling over games between schools and colleges, or abandon intercollegiate games altogether.

Does the doctrine of sanctification allow a man to get mad? Does it allow him to object to an expression of opinion on the part of those who do not think as he does? Christ was even spit upon and did not resent it. Imagine a man wholly sanctified, perfect and good, getting mad at anything! Better things are naturally expected of those who enjoy the second blessing than of those who profess only the "old time religion," and who have to battle with temptations, and who find it a constant struggle to overcome the world, the flesh and the devil. Yet people who claim this new sanctification doctrine get mad with newspapers that dare to express an adverse opinion or venture a criticism. Just for all the world like other people, who still dwell in temples of clay and who are subject alike to evil passions and temptations.

The Christmas number of the Raleigh Morning Post was a thing of beauty and a neat stroke of journalistic enterprise. We congratulate the management. The Post is growing and already ranks among the first morning dailies of the south.

A SURE CURE FOR COUGHS.

Twenty-five Years' Constant Use Without a Failure.

The first indication of croup is hoarseness, and in a child subject to that disease it may be taken as a sure sign of the approach of an attack. Following this hoarseness is a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is used in many thousands of homes in this broad land and never disappoints the anxious mothers. We have yet to learn of a single instance in which it has not proved effectual. No other preparation can show such a record—twenty-five years' constant use without a failure. For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

"When a woman pauses to reflect," says the Manayunk Philosopher, "it is generally before a looking-glass."

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine, and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the throat, chest and lungs are surely cured by it. Call on C. E. Holton, druggist, and get a trial bottle free, Regular size 50c and $1. Every bottle guaranteed or price refunded.

The candidate who boasts that his friends are a unit would be considerably surprised to get but one vote.

Red Hot from the Gun.

Was the ball that hit G. B. Steadman, of Newark, Mich., in the Civil War. It caused horrible ulcers that no treatment helped for twenty years. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him. Cures cuts, bruises, burns, boils, feldons, corns, skin eruptions. Best pile cure on earth. 25 cents a box, cure guaranteed. Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist.

As a rule, the convict with a life sentence isn't particularly anxious for his term to expire.

It takes but a minute to overcome a tickling in the throat and to stop a cough by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and feel the results in loss of appetite, poison in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and appetite than any thing I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents at C. E. Holton's drug store. Every bottle guaranteed.

Mr. W. A. Hines, of Manchester, Iowa, writing of his almost miraculous escape from death says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even if it cost $5 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure throat, chest and lung troubles." Since our December announcement we have had hundreds of pleased customers—pleased with the goods and the price. Still there are a few upon whom the truth is slow to dawn, that think we are only advertising. We wonder if they think we are such fools as to advertise to do what we are not willing to stand up to.

The Poet Burns,

Not the least of the advantages attending life assurance is the serenity of mind which attends the provident man lying on a bed of sickness, or when he is in prospect of death—so unlike that painful anxiety for the future welfare of the family not provided for. The poet Burns, in writing to a friend a few days before his death, said that he was "still the victim of affliction. Alas! Clark, I begin to fear the worst. Burns' poor widow and a half a dozen of his dear little ones, helpless orphans; there, I am weak as a woman's tear. Enough of this, 'tis half of my disease!"

"If you would escape the rock upon which the lamented Burns split," take shelter from the storm that is bound to spend its fury upon you when the fatal summons comes, by at once securing the magnetic contract offered by the Provident Savings.

Oh, the Pain of Rheumatism!

Rheumatism often causes the most intense suffering. Many have for years vainly sought relief from this disabling disease, and are to-day worse off than ever. Rheumatism is a blood disease, and Swift's Specific is the only cure, because it is the only remedy which can reach such deep-seated diseases.

A few years ago I was taken with indomitable rheumatism, which became so intense that I was for weeks unable to walk. I tried several prominent physicians and took their treatment faithfully, but was unable to get the slightest relief. In fact, my condition seemed to grow worse, the disease spread over my entire body, and from November to March I suffered agony. I tried every patent medicine, but none relieved me. Upon the advice of a friend I decided to try S. S. S. Before allowing me to take it, however, my guardian, who was a chemist, analyzed the remedy, and pronounced it free of poisons or mercury. I then took the cure was permanent. I have never since been troubled with rheumatism, and I can testify that S. S. S. is a true cure. I have never since been troubled with rheumatism, and I can testify that S. S. S. is a true cure. I have never since been troubled with rheumatism, and I can testify that S. S. S. is a true cure.

Still suffering longer with Rheumatism. Throw aside your oils and liniments, as they cannot reach your trouble. Don't experiment with doctors—their poisons and mercury will do your disability and completely destroy your digestion.

ARE LEAVING WASHINGTON.

Members Have Christmas in Their Bones.

BAILEY READY TO MAKE TROUBLE

Provided General Wheeler's Name Had Been Among the List of Committee Appointments.

Special to the TALKER.

Washington, Dec. 19.—Members of congress are leaving Washington rapidly for their homes, where the most of them will spend the Christmas holidays. Now that the currency bill, and the house committee assignments have been disposed of, there is nothing to keep the members in Washington. The business in the house is not pressing, and both today and tomorrow an early adjournment will be taken. The recess of congress is somewhat longer this year than usual, extending just two weeks, from December 20th to January 3rd. This will enable most of the members to make visits to their homes, and the larger portion of them will avail themselves of the opportunity. Of course, the far western members will likely remain in Washington, and from their states.

The announcement of the committee in the house on Monday was the occasion of some surprise among the members, as it was generally thought the announcement would not be made before Tuesday or Wednesday. It is understood the object of the speaker in announcing the committee on Monday was due to the fact that most of the members were in the city, and could leave of their assignments, and be enabled to leave the city at once for their homes. There was a full membership in the house when the committees were announced, the vote having just previously been taken on the financial bill, which showed that 340, out of the 386 members of the house of representatives were in the city.

The senators are also leaving the city rapidly. Very few senators were in the senate Monday. Among those who will spend the vacation at their homes are Senators Tillman, of South Carolina, Martin and Daniel, of Virginia, Pritchard, of North Carolina, and Morgan, of Alabama.

Representative Bailey, of Texas, was prepared to make trouble in the house when the speaker announced the committees. When the names of the committee on ways and means were announced he inquired of the speaker if the name of General Wheeler, of Alabama, was included in the appointments. The speaker replied, however in the negative, which prevented a possible conflict in the house over the question of the validity of the title of General Wheeler to a seat in the house of representatives. Mr. Bailey believes that General Wheeler is not entitled to a seat in the house, even should he resign his commission in the army, and it is said that when the general presents himself to be sworn in as a member he will enter an objection, and protest, and will ask that the matter be referred to the committee on elections, or to the committee on the judiciary.

It was generally thought that a southern republican would be given the chairmanship of one of the election committees of the house by Speaker Henderson, as most of the contests came from that section, and had this been done Mr. Linney, of North Carolina, would probably have been one of the chairmen, as he was a ranking member. The speaker, however, gave all the election committee chairmanships to western men, which is regarded as somewhat strange particularly so, as two of the chairmen of committees one and two came from Ohio. An analysis of the committee assignments show that 31 of the chairmanships of the house go to western members, that is to states west of the Ohio river; 19 go to eastern republicans, and three go to border states, including Missouri and Maryland.

The southern states are not given a single chairmanship in the house by Speaker Henderson, notwithstanding the fact that there are three or four members in line, that is in point of service, being the old members of the house. Among them are Mr. Linney, of North Carolina; Hawley, of Texas; White, of North Carolina, and Brownlow and Gibson, of Tennessee.

Senator Tillman has offered a resolution declaring that under the constitution the United States has no right to rule over colonial possessions. The senator will address the senate on the subject at some future date, after the Christmas holidays.

ADDRESS OF WARNING

In regard to the outbreak of Smallpox at Terra Cotta.

North Carolina, Guilford county.

Whereas, it has come to the knowledge of the authorities of Guilford county that there is an epidemic of smallpox at Terra Cotta. Whereas, it is made that duty of said authorities to warn all citizens of the county and persons generally of the said epidemic and to urge upon all persons the importance of immediate vaccination in order that a scourge of that disease may be averted.

Now therefore, we the board of county commissioners and county superintendent of health of said county most earnestly urge upon all persons the wisdom and the duty of being vaccinated at once. Should the disease spread and the people neglect this warning and request, it may become necessary for us in compliance with law, and in order to prevent a devastating epidemic of this terrible disease, to order compulsory vaccination.

All persons who are unable to pay the expenses of vaccination shall be vaccinated free by the county.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Miss Lola Caraway went to Reidville today.

A nice list of choice eatables is advertised by Hudson today. Read it.

Rev. J. A. B. Fry, of Concord, is in the city this afternoon going to Winston.

The advertising space of Greensboro Steam Laundry contains Christmas Greetings today.

We noticed a number of G. F. College students going home today to spend the holidays.

Miss Stella Allen is visiting friends in Reidville. She will visit friends in Virginia during the holidays.

Mrs. B. N. Mauer and daughter, of Siler City, are spending a day or two in the city. They will return home tomorrow.

Big lot extra fine carnations and other cut flowers, for Christmas are advertised today by the J. Van Lindley Nursery Co.

We are glad to hear that Father Anthony is much improved and will probably leave for St. Leo, Florida, some time this week.

Two kinds of holiday clothing, both described in the ad of Will H. Matthews & Co. today, but they keep only one--the good kind.

J. Van Lindley went to Southern Pine today to attend a meeting of the experimental board, of which he is a distinguished member.

Thacker & Brockmann's store will be kept open until nine o'clock evening the rest of the week for the convenience of Christmas shoppers.

The recent card concerning Mr. Todd, excommunication, signed "A Presbyterian Minister," was not written by the pastor of either of our city Presbyterian churches.

The only thing exaggerated about the business and the advertisement of McClamroch Bros. they are frank enough to acknowledge in their space in the Telegram today. See their new ad.

Drs. Moore, like all hustlers, believe in the free use of printers ink. In addition to their regular space they are before you today with two new ads in the Telegram. Read them.

Miss Mary Little, of Wadesboro, a popular student of Greensboro Female College, went home this morning to spend a week. She will return after the holidays, to the delight of her many friends.

Rev. J. J. Rynn and family were in the city today, enroute to Mt. Airy from Reidville. Mr. Rynn being changed by the last conference from Reidville station to presiding elder of the Mt. Airy district.

There are no more tastily dressed windows in town than those at Shrier's shoe store, the handwork of Mrs. Shrier. They are models of neatness and good taste, and are therefore attractive and pleasing.

Hon. John W. Atwater, congressman from the Fourth district, was in the city this morning and took breakfast at Clegg's, on his way home to Chatham county from Washington, to spend the holidays.

Among the men who are telling you of their holiday goods the groceryman stands alone in the lead. See the new ad to day of Vancannon & Co. You'll want something good for Christmas. Call and see them.

The old house, corner of Gaston and Greene streets, is being rapidly demolished to make way for the new jail. It is said that brick is to be hauled at once for its construction. 'Tis a consummation devoutly to be wished.

We return thanks to Mr. J. M. Dick, of the Greensboro Steam Laundry, for a number of match boxes given the Telegram force. They are neat and handy. If some one will furnish the matches and cigars we will be fixed.

Mr. Wilburn Simpson left last night to spend the holidays at his old home, Rogersville, Hawkins county. Then Mr. Simpson took two fine bird dogs belonging to a friend with him. He will return after the holidays. What disposition he will make of the dogs we are not prepared to say.

Mrs. W. H. Branson, of Durham, is visiting the family of her father, Mr. B. E. Sergeant, on East Washington street. The editor of the Telegram is indebted to her for a copy of the book just issued in memory of her lamented husband, and which we notice at length on the editorial page.

Looking for a Xmas present did you say? Well, I'm sorry for you, for it is awfully perplexing to find the right thing. Why don't you go to Kaufmann's? You are sure to find something there that will fill the bill. If you can't find it yourself, ask for it. It is there somewhere.

The Fadettes Last Night.

The Fadettes orchestra gave a delightful concert last night at the academy of music. Mrs. Nichols has the orchestra, if we may use the expression, completely under her baton. Miss White, the cornet soloist, and Miss Webb, the violin soloist, were excellent. In fact, the whole orchestra understands harmony thoroughly. When they got into grand opera we did not know exactly where we were at, but it sounded mighty sweet just the same. They play martial music with a regular Sousa dash.

The Burning Question

Of to-day is: Where will my dollars do double duty? And not: Where is Aguinaldo, the insurgent leader, or how about the war between the English and Dutch? And when will Old wind up the Philippine campaign, or what do you think of Roberts, the Representative from Utah? All of these questions sink into insignificance when compared to the burning question: Where can money be saved in buying goods? This is easily answered by dealing at.
